2 mean? 12:07:17PM	2 you'll do it yourself or you'll authorize 12:09:49PM
3 A. Again, we're talking about the 12:07:20PM	3 somebody to do it and, you know, typically 12:09:53PM
4 executive group. 12:07:22PM	4 in exchange for some participation in the 12:09:56PM
5 Q. Do you remember any discussion 12:07:28PM	5 value of the authorized generic. 12:09:58PM
6 within the executive team about moving 12:07:30PM	6 And none of that was at play 12:10:02PM
7 Namenda IR to limited distribution? 12:07:33PM	7 here, right, we had a branded product, 12:10:04PM
8 MR. TOTO: Object to form, 12:07:36PM	8 there was a point in time when there were 12:10:09PM
9 vague. 12:07:37PM	9 multiple generics that were expected to 12:10:11PM
10 A. Not real specifically. 12:07:40PM	10 come to the market, so, you know, the 12:10:15PM
I am aware that there were 12:07:42PM	11 value of an authorized generic, I don't 12:10:20PM
12 discussions about that there might be 12:07:43PM	12 know how familiar you are with the whole 12:10:22PM
13 certain patients who for one reason or 12:07:49PM	13 Hatch-Waxman structure, but how do I 12:10:25PM
14 another had a strong preference for the IR 12:07:51PM	14 explain this simply. 12:10:33PM
15 and that there might be means to make that 12:07:56PM	15 In the early days of 12:10:34PM
16 available to them. 12:07:57PM	16 Hatch-Waxman there was kind of a race to 12:10:40PM
17 But, you know, I wasn't I 12:07:59PM	17 the FDA by generic companies, because part 12:10:43PM
18 didn't deal with again, by this point 12:08:02PM	18 of the Hatch-Waxman regime was the six 12:10:47PM
19 in time I wasn't responsible for 12:08:04PM	19 months of exclusivity that was available 12:10:50PM
20 distribution, it wasn't something that I 12:08:05PM	20 to the first party who challenged a 12:10:52PM
21 would have been centrally involved in. 12:08:07PM	21 branded patent successfully. 12:10:56PM
Q. Did the executive team discuss 12:08:12PM	And so the generics would race 12:10:58PM
23 an authorized generic? 12:08:16PM	23 to the FDA and get to be the first one at 12:11:00PM
24 MR, TOTO: Of IR I assume 12:08:20PM	24 the door and try to get the six months. 12:11:02PM
25 you're talking about? 12:08:23PM	25 And then they changed the law 12:11:05PM

So typically let's back up 12:08:56PM	1 SOLOMON - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 2 to avoid that kind of, you know, that 12:11:08PM 3 race, so that anybody who filed on the 12:11:10PM 4 first day that you could file was treated 12:11:14PM 5 the same, so you had multiple first 12:11:16PM 6 filers, you may be familiar that in these 12:11:20PM 7 cases, patent litigation, you often have 12:11:23PM 8 multiple first filers, and they share the 12:11:25PM 9 benefit of that early entry, which in a 12:11:27PM 10 sense so for big drugs you often have 12:11:29PM
1 SOLOMON - HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 2 MR. BIESANZ: Of Namenda IR. 12:08:24PM 3 A. 2 of an authorized generic is much greater 12:12:16PM	2 MR, TOTO: Still vague, 12:14:20PM
3 because you have a six-month period where 12:12:19PM	3 A. Well, as I said, this was a 12:14:23PM
4 there may only be one generic product and 12:12:20PM	4 process where we evaluated a lot of 12:14:25PM
5 so you as a branded company might say, 12:12:22PM	5 different considerations and so in the 12:14:27PM
6 well, we can share that generic market and 12:12:27PM	6 course of that there were certainly 12:14:34PM

13 there will be many generic versions of 12:12:43PM	13 of, certainly I'm sure issues that got 12:14:55PM
14 Namenda IR, so the value for us of an 12:12:48PM	14 addressed and thought through, but I don't 12:15:00PM

18 different view, I don't know, but 12:12:58PM	18 decision? 12:15:07PM
19 certainly for Forest, we never viewed an 12:13:01PM	19 A. Well, as I explained before, I 12:15:09PM
20 authorized generic of Namenda IR as being 12:13:03PM	20 felt that we were selling improved, 12:15:11PM
21 something of we had a few generic 12:13:08PM	21 innovative product, I thought that it 12:15:16PM

23	23 described earlier to remove the obsolete 12:15:27PM
